WHAT OTHERS ARE SAYING

“Chicago Tech Academy High School would like to thank you for the wealth of knowledge and information you presented to our students. What you imparted is extremely important to their success in future academic studies and professional growth and achievements. I am most certain they will recall your assembly for years to come.”

—Dr. David Young, Principal

“Steve Olsher has a message we all need to hear, but especially young adults on the brink of life and work. His concepts are original. His stories are relevant to young adults and he is a skilled facilitator and empowers his audience to apply key concepts to their lives. I’m very pleased with his work at Columbia College. He held the interest of a very creative group of arts-related majors and I learned a lot too. I would recommend Steve wholeheartedly.”

—Cyndi Maxey, Instructor, Columbia College

“Wow! Steve Olsher’s ‘Who Were You Born To Be?’ was a real eye-opener for me. I knew I have special skills and interests, but I didn’t really know how to put them all together. It was a tremendous road to self-discovery and I also came up with some great business ideas. His book Journey To You completed the presentation for me. Now that Steve helped me figure out what my ‘WHAT’ is, the rest is up to me!”
